This two-day course covers what is required to comply with Chapter VI of the Manual of Uniform Traffic Control (MUTCD). After completion of the course, students have a good understanding of how traffic control should be set up in work zones to protect themselves and the motoring public.